

WE EMPOWER AND EDUCATE

Changing Landscape of Long-Term Care Conference

A conference to bring together professional long-term caregivers with individuals from the community to learn dynamic strategies, innovative tools and available options.

Friday, June 13, 2014

Registration 7:30 am • Program 8 am to 4:30 pm

St. Louis Marriott West • St. Louis, MO

Opening Keynotes:

Arthur Culbert
Village to Village Network

Byron Freeman
Administrator at Loch Haven
Nursing Home

Tim Dolan
President and CEO of
Dolan Memory Care Homes

Breakout Sessions:

For Professionals

Caregiving at Its Best: Learn key strategies to enhance your skills in long-term care.

- Balancing Protective Oversight with Residents Rights
- How to Compassionately Provide Care When Residents' Behaviors are Difficult: The Do's and Don'ts
- Effective Communication with Families, Especially in Times of Conflict
- Enhanced Well-Being: Reducing Antipsychotic Drug Use For Long-Term Care Residents

For Community Members

Learn the Essentials: Hear from financial, legal and geriatric experts.

- Planning for Long-Term Care: Where Do We Begin?
- Choosing Care Alternatives to Remain Independent or Facility-Based Care
- Planning for End-of-Life Care: Having Those Difficult Discussions
- Live Life Well: Taking Care of the Caregiver

$125 with 7 CEUs • $65 without CEUs • $35 General Public

Register with easy online payment at www.voycestl.org or mail check to:

8702 MANCHESTER ROAD | BRENTWOOD, MO 63144
TELEPHONE: 314.918.8222 | FAX: 314.918.9188 | TOLL FREE: 866.918.8222
WWW.VOYCESTL.ORG

