

Tim Prosch presents
"The Other Talk"

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22
THE BRIDGE AT FLORISSANT

10 a.m. - Residents and Family Members

5:30 p.m. - Open to the Community and Area Professionals

Tim Prosch, author of the book The Other Talk will give a presentation about decision-making advice designed to help older adults and their kids develop a plan to finance the future. He will discuss legal documents, living wills, living arrangements, medical expenses.

ABOUT TIM PROSCH:

Tim Prosch has written a book, The Other Talk, and is speaking to audiences of Boomers as well as to financial, legal and health care advisors on how to get past the emotional barriers to that conversation and to openly deal with reality.

Throughout Prosch's career, he has researched the Baby Boom generation and brought his observations to organizations like Hallmark, the National Funeral Directors Association, the Financial Planners Association, the National Association of Realtors, Kraft and NIKE.

Since its launch in September 2013, The Other Talk concept has had a powerful practical and emotional impact on Prosch's audiences.
